The Imitation of Jesus A. Blake White

In his recent book, Continuity and Discontinuity, John Reisinger writes, “I fear that some New Covenant Theology people are neglecting the role of Christ as a sufficient moral example. They seem to want to create a new Old Covenant that is just as rule, ore law, centered as the old Old Covenant.” I agree, and that is the reason for this booklet. I love this theme because I believe God loves this theme. It is all over the New Testament. This little book is a fresh exposition of nine passages of the New Testament that show forth Christ as the model of what it means to die to self for the good of others.
