Kazuo e Yoshito Ohno (Portuguese Edition) Emidio Luisi

Abordando nascimento, morte, sexualidade e inconsciente, o butô compreende e transmite o percurso íntimo do artista em busca dele mesmo em meio às transformações ao seu redor. É como uma experiência de vida, sem tempo fixo para se esgotar, e que, em cena, Kazuo Ohno conseguia elevar a uma dimensão sublime e universal. Emidio Luisi conseguiu registrar essa profundidade ao iniciar um diálogo entre butô e fotografia desde a primeira vez em que Kazuo e Yoshito Ohno se apresentaram no Brasil, em 1986. Diante do espetáculo ou nos bastidores, Luisi alcançou no rosto dos artistas a condição humana. Captando gestos e silêncios, as imagens presentes nesta obra revelam a poética cumplicidade da conversa entre essas duas artes.

Approaching birth, death, sexuality and unconscious, the Butoh understands and conveys the intimate journey of the artist in his inner search even amid the changes around him. It's like a life experience, with no fixed time to run out, and that, on the scene, Kazuo Ohno could raise a sublime and universal dimension. Emidio Luisi managed to record this depth initiating a dialogue between Butoh and photography since the first time Kazuo and Yoshito Ohno performed in Brazil, in 1986. In front of the show or at the backstages, Luisi reached for the human condition in the artists' faces. Capturing gestures and silences, the images present in this work reveal the poetic complicity of the conversation between these two forms of art.
