Watching My Husband's Free Pass Fawn Dilcox

Nick was ecstatic when his fiancée Dana told him he had a free pass to hook up with anyone on the night before their wedding. Never in a million years did he think he would end up going home with another man and he never imagined the desire that would be awakened on the night before his wedding.

What will happen when Nick, a straight man, not only goes through with his wedding after having his first gay experience, but hooks up with another man during his honeymoon?

This sizzling 6500 word story features a straight man's first time with another man and his wife catching him in the act.
