Captured Terri J. Haynes

Special Agent Will Anderson is counting the days before he transfers from the D.C. Human Rights squad of the FBI, but he's leaving behind everyone he loves. He is asked to interview a victim of suspected human trafficking, a simple task, but finds himself deeply involved in the case.

Social rights activist, Savannah Elliott, has made a fresh start in Washington, D.C., but a routine consultation on a D.C. Human Rights case brings her face to face with a terror from her past.

As Will and Savannah struggle to solve the case, they are forced to face choices, some they've buried for years. Will their decisions, past and present, bring them love and safety or will they lose everything, including their lives?
