Forget the quiet desperation of failure. It's time to awaken the success genius within you.

Success is elusive, and chances are, you've heard about setting goals, making "to-do" lists, and meeting each morning like a charging rhinoceros. And chances are, this is not your first rodeo. You've tried everything from dressing for success, giving until it hurts, thinking big, attracting positive results, dumping bad habits, acting enthusiastic, winning friends and influencing people, and perhaps even modelling the leadership skills of Attila the Hun or Winnie-the-Pooh.

This book on success is about discovering and applying seven simple rules in your quest for success. Best of all, the rules are universal, and can help you achieve better results in virtually every aspect of your life, including: business, work, health, sport, and relationships.
