Because You Keep Asking: Questions about SEXuality from America's College Students Ranee Alison Spina, Kimberly Chestnut

Because You Keep Asking fills a huge gap-what college students across the country know about sexuality and what they need to know about sexuality. Students' actual questions at campus events and in college courses are answered by Award-Winning Author & Speaker Ranee Alison Spina, M.A. and Director of Wellness Kimberly Chestnut, Ph.D. SEXUAL HEALTH is a whole body, head-to-toe affair; and therefore, the questions are divided into sections: HEAD, MOUTH, HEART, PELVIS, BUTT, and TOES. Though Ranee and Dr. Kim's exchange with students most often references heterosexual coupling, they support all sexual orientations and address a few questions pertaining to various relationship styles. With students getting information provided by text books on one side, and incorrect online advice on the other side, Because You Keep Asking is the go-to-guide of no-nonsense, correct information that students find interesting and easy to read. Because You Keep Asking crosses religious, political, and geographical boundaries.
