ONE WEEK

Rigdon Sadar has carried the burden all his life. For forty-five years everyone believed that his grandfather stole twenty-seven sacks of high-grade ore from a mine. After the ore was stolen, Sadar's grandfather took off for Alaska and struck it rich, but that only fueled the rumors—folks thought it was all a move to cover his sudden wealth. Now Sadar has one week to clear his family's name, only seven short days to find the hidden cache somewhere in the abandoned shafts of the ghost mine. Desperate men have been seeking that ore for nearly fifty years, but Sadar's honor—and his life—depend on him doing the impossible...and doing it right now!
