The special feature of this book is, that although these are jazz music pieces, the scores are not limited to a classic guide. On the contrary, here you find recorded in detail, the integrated music and the orchestration idea: theme, chords / combing and separate melodic lines. This is an important musical tool for both beginners

A book that deserves to be studied by contemporary bands, as scores have been written with great detail and care by Christos Digas (professor, composer and active musician) and is a training and enhancement tool for those who study music.

The songs are written for the following instruments:: leading voice, electric guitar, piano, bass, accordion & percussion
