Trenta e lode senza studiare (Le grandi navi) (Italian Edition) Lorenzo Ait

Amate studiare? Fatelo per conto vostro, perché ormai l'Università non può fare molto per voi.

L'"esamificio" universitario punta tutt'al più a darvi una infarinatura di questa o quella materia, per farvi sloggiare il prima possibile - basta che paghiate le tasse universitarie, tutte, e fino in fondo. Di chi è la colpa di questa situazione? Non certo dei ragazzi, che vengono diplomati dalle scuole superiori senza alcuna verifica seria, e vengono abbindolati a colpi di tesine ed esami fotocopia, per conseguire una laurea che nel migliore dei casi è un viatico all'emigrazione intellettuale. Nel sistema attuale, la laurea è ormai un male necessario, una medicina amara. Inutile studiare per ottenerla: in questo libro Lorenzo Ait individua le falle del sistema universitario, le analizza, le smaschera e ci insegna a sfruttarle per ottenere il massimo risultato con il minimo sforzo. Leggete questo libro, ed entrerete con orgoglio a far parte di quelli che sono "intelligenti proprio perché non si applicano". Forse non vi farete una grande cultura accademica, ma almeno leggerete più libri interessanti, vedrete più film importanti, riuscirete a vivere un rapporto più sano con la cultura.
