Every Witch Way But Dead B. Ella Donna

Spirits and killers and spells, oh my! This witch must confront them all...or die.

Psychic since childhood, Angelica sees and hears spirits. Up until now, their messages were benign, but they've become mysterious and menacing. Premonitions of an impending murder along with recollections of a past life haunt Angelica's nights. Dreams of strange rituals and a vaguely familiar handsome stranger tug at her emotions.

Death takes the spotlight at an Arthur's Graile concert. The internationally known pagan band is just embarking on its summer tour. Angelica sees her visions play out on the stage when a back-up singer is brutally murdered.

And this is only the beginning. Death is not leaving Oceanview without more victims, and it has its sights on Angelica Kane.
