It's summer break and Amanda is headed home from her third year of college, now engaged and in love. She didn't know what was about to hit her as she walked into her parents' front door. Their neighbors, the Smiths, have a son that left years before to enter the Navy, and he now sits there on the couch as a ripped, sexy Navy Seal, even hotter than the boy next door that she had a crush on all through high school. There is so much to question, but she has a chance to spend time with this Bad Boy lover right away, fighting the chemistry in an attempt to maintain her engagement. The plan of the summer was to return home, work, begin her wedding plans and get ready for senior year. But there is a strong chance of everything going awry. Which way will she go?
