[BookStrand Paranormal Romance, Vampires] Tristan Williamson waited four hundred years for her blood. Believing it holds his cure, he's ready to end her life and retake his humanity. Present at her birth, he finds killing her is not as easy as he planned. As she grows, befriending her was a dangerous mistake. And when she comes to him as a beautiful woman, falling in love with her could end up being her ultimate demise. As a child Anna Carlson worshiped the ground he walked on, believing in his existence as a vampire wholeheartedly until the day he left her. Her bitterness grew over the years, leading her to believe he was nothing but a con. Now, to fulfill the dying wish of her father, she's destined to find his whereabouts and help him discover a cure she knew nothing about. But when she falls in love with him all over again, she'll find danger she will never forget. A BookStrand Mainstream Romance
