Crónica de Jufré (Spanish Edition) Jerónimo Tristante

Murcia, 1257. Berenguer de Jufré es un joven noble de origen aragonés a cuya sombra se acoge el cura francés Bernardo de Boussiers, quien huye de la investigación abierta por la Inquisición a causa de su vida licenciosa en cuanto al sexto mandamiento se refiere. Por orden del rey Alfonso X ambos se instalarán en la frontera con Al-Ándalus con el objetivo de impedir la inminente rebelión mudéjar. Jufré, hombre de honor, valiente y despiadado con sus enemigos, es el candidato perfecto para la misión... hasta que tras sufrir un golpe en la cabeza en una escaramuza con los musulmanes comienza a mostrar unos alarmantes signos de locura transitoria impropios de un caballero de su tiempo... Una espléndida e inusual novele histórica que enfrenta con humor y realismo nuestros actuales valores democráticos con los imperantes en el S. XIII, basados en el honor, la guerra y la religión.
