England's Best Loved Poems: The Enchantment of England George Courtauld

This treasure trove of very British poetry brings together over 100 classic poems, selected by bestselling author and proud patriot George Courtauld. Including national favourites such as Rupert Brooke's 'The Soldier', George Herbert's 'Love' and John Betjeman's 'A Subaltern's Love Song' these are poems chosen for their resonant power, nostalgia and simplicity. Following themes such as bravery and fellowship, love and regret, and people and places, this charming collection is a pleasure to dip into. And with lesser-known poems by the likes of Emily Bronte, Winston Churchill and Sir Walter Raleigh, this inspiring anthology offers more than the average poetry book. The author places each poem in its historical context, gives a potted biography of each poet and offers his own personal interpretation of the words and themes. This wonderful and original collection will enchant poetry lovers everywhere.

Audrey Spence:

As a student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library in order to make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's spirit or real their interest. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring and can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important for you. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this England's Best Loved Poems: The Enchantment of England can make you really feel more interested to read.
