Whether you call it minimalism, voluntary simplicity, or just getting back to the basics, it all adds up to the same thing - freedom to live your life. Living a life that is smaller, simpler, and freer from many of the modern traps can allow you to explore areas of yourself you might have never seen before. Living a minimalist lifestyle helps you to weed out the things that are holding you down and live a life that is much less complex. Organized Simplicity by Javinne White typifies this concept and teaches you how to declutter not just your home but your entire life in a bid to improve life quality and standards. The modern world seems to be more and more complex every day. New technologies, new toys, new products, and new must-have gadgets are constantly being developed. Many people find themselves at a loss, surrounded by clutter and advertising to buy more and more. It seems that the more advanced we become, the more we drown under a pile of things we are told we need. However, life does not have to be like this. Making the choice to move towards a more minimalist, simpler lifestyle can free you from the stress of modern living. As you move away from the need to buy more stuff, you may also find that your bills become lower while your free time becomes greater. Letting go will give you a chance to examine your priorities and see what is really important to you. Organized Simplicity by Javinne White is perfect for anyone looking to get this process started and is a must read for seasoned simple life lovers for new tips and hints.
