El Señor de Bembibre (Spanish Edition) Enrique Gil y Carrasco

Este ebook presenta "El Señor de Bembibre ", con un sumario dinámico y detallado.

Novela histórica de Enrique Gil y Carrasco, publicada en 1846, en pleno apogeo del romanticismo, narra los desgraciados amores de don Álvaro Yáñez, último señor de Bembibre, y doña Beatriz Osorio. La trama se combina con la caída de la Orden del Temple, verdadera protagonista de la obra. El paisaje se asocia a la propia intimidad de los personajes, y les ofrece refugio y consuelo en sus tristezas.

Los personajes responden a los caracteres peculiares del drama romántico español. El autor logra una adecuada fusión artística del fondo histórico, de las peripecias novelescas y de su marco geográfico.

Escritor español, Enrique Gil y Carrasco (1815 – 1845) perteneció al movimiento literario del romanticismo y es conocido principalmente por El Señor de Bembibre, obra fundamental del romanticismo histórico español. Escribió, además, numerosos artículos periodísticos, ensayo de viaje y costumbres, algo de poesía e incluso teatro.
